

Haji Muhammad Mohsin Government High School
(Since 1874)

Class/Activity – 40, May 13, 2020
Class 9-10

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 1

Directions: In the blank below each sentence, write the correct form of the verb in parenthesis. You may add the auxiliary verbs will, would, have and had as needed.

1. If I had the proper tools, I _____ (repair) this toaster.
2. That cat _____ (scratch) you if you pick her up.
3. If Tom has enough time, he _____ (visit) your sister tomorrow.
4. You _____ (see) flowers within a month if you plant these seeds.
5. If we had gotten rain, the garden _____ (look) good by now.
6. If you wash the dishes, I _____ (dry) them later.
7. If Martin had remembered his passport, he _____ (be) out of customs by now.
8. The garden would have looked better if we _____ (get) rain earlier this week.
9. I would have bought you a present if you _____ (give) me some money.
10. If you had looked harder, you _____ (see) the tiny bird.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 2

1. My house _____ (be) warmer if the furnace worked.
2. If I had the necessary ingredients, I _____ (make) spaghetti.
3. Mary _____ (find) the missing key if you give her enough time.
4. If he frames the picture correctly tomorrow, it _____ (look) good.
5. If Joe had taken the right train, he _____ (arrived) in Paris by now.
6. Tom would see the sights better if he _____ (sit) in the front seat.
7. If you _____ (add) water to the powder, you will create a delicious drink.
8. Gene _____ (pass) the test if he had studied for it.
9. If Mr. Smith had come on time, we _____ (meet) him at the station.
10. Bob _____ (reach) the city by tomorrow if he drives all day today.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 3

1. If you polish the silver today, it _____ (look) nice for the party tomorrow.
2. If Da Vinci were painting today, he _____ (be) famous.
3. The car _____ (be) clean now if you had washed it yesterday.
4. Your vocabulary _____ (improve) in the future if you read a lot now.
5. If you had left earlier, you _____ (arrive) on time.
6. We _____ (have) plenty of space if we lived in that big house.
7. If you _____ (sleep) more, you would have more energy.
8. If James _____ (eat) all of his food, he would have felt satisfied by now.
9. We would have less strife in the world if people _____ (be) kinder to each other.
10. If the gardeners plant that tree, it _____ (bloom) next spring.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 4

1. My friend Bob would fly away if he (be) a bird.
2. If you (see) a red light, stop your car.

3. If he (shoot) the bear, he would not have been wounded.
4. Gerald (give) me a dollar if he had one.
5. If we were friends, we (talk) more often.
6. I (make) potato salad tomorrow if I have all of the ingredients.
7. If you had been nicer to the cat, she (purr).
8. Marjorie would turn on the lights if she (come) home later.
9. If I were you, I (go) home right away.
10. If you give the dog a bone, he usually (eat) it right away.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 5

1. If the weather is nice tomorrow, we _____ (go) to the beach.
2. John always _____ (do) his chores if he feels all right.
3. If your dog had barked, the thief _____ (leave).
4. If the tree has a fungus, we _____ (cut) it down tomorrow.
5. If Joan had been in her office, she _____ (see) the e-mail.
6. Paul _____ (go) to the doctor if he had had a fever.
7. If you lived closer, I _____ (visit) more often.
8. John _____ (know) what to do if he were home.
9. If the grass seems too high, I usually _____ (trim) it.
10. The band _____ (play) longer if the crowd had been more enthusiastic.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 6

1. If I visit you next Saturday, I _____ (bring) the letter.
2. If it had rained, we _____ (get) wet.
3. Mary _____ (visit) more often if she were a better friend.
4. If Tom had read the book, he _____ (like) the movie.
5. Your arm would become infected if the cat _____ (scratch) you.
6. If the judge had taken more time, I _____ (win) my case.
7. If you had made more noise, you _____ (awaken) the baby.
8. The eggs would be rubbery if you _____ (cook) them too long.
9. If you eat too much food tonight, you _____ (gain) weight.
10. If he had more sense, he _____ (stay) inside more often.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 7

1. If a stranger had come to the door, the dog _____ (bark).
2. If Grace washed her car more often, it _____ (look) better.
3. The editor will publish your book if she _____ (like) the plot.
4. If the power failed, the television _____ (stop) working.
5. If you come to my house next Saturday, I _____ (make) lunch for us.
6. No one would read the book if the story _____ (be) not interesting.
7. If you had finished school, you _____ (get) a good job.
8. If the weather is warm, I usually _____ (go) to the swimming pool.
9. The plane would have landed on time if the pilot _____ (follow) the right course.
10. You would not need your keys if you _____ (leave) your door unlocked.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 8

1. If you stood on the corner, you _____ (see) the parade.
2. If the ducks came here more often, we _____ (feed) them.
3. She will wear the green skirt if it _____ (fit) her.

4. If Joan had been there, she _____ (tell) you.
5. You _____ (enjoy) that book if you had read it.
6. If Madeleine were more courageous, we _____ (feel) safer.
7. Sean _____ (help) if he had been here.
8. The team would have won the game if Jones _____ (play).
9. If the telephone rang, Daisy _____ (answer) it immediately.
10. If the oven had been hotter, the roast _____ (cook) faster.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 9

1. Jim _____ (score) a goal if he had kicked the ball sooner.
2. If the package arrives soon, someone _____ (open) it.
3. If you really cared about me, you _____ (call) more often.
4. If I wanted some dessert, I _____ (ask) for it.
5. You _____ (know) how to surf if you lived in Hawaii.
6. If they have enough time tomorrow, they _____ (visit) us.
7. If Joe had made the coffee, no one _____ (drink) any.
8. The customers _____ (buy) more merchandise if it were displayed artistically.
9. If she had joined the army, she _____ (travel) to many places.
10. You _____ (look) nicer if you ironed our shirt.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 10

1. If it rains this afternoon, I _____ (bring) my umbrella to your house.
2. If I knew more about it, I _____ (say) something.
3. The plant would thrive if you _____ (give) it enough water.
4. People _____ (be) more sympathetic if they knew the whole story.
5. If the supermarket had been open, Martha _____ (buy) some groceries.
6. The boat would stop if they _____ (lower) the anchor.
7. If the mail carrier had delivered the letter, I _____ (have) information for you.
8. Jack would have made up his mind sooner if he _____ (know) about the problem.
9. If the boy had known the truth, he _____ (tell) his parents.
10. If I _____ (find) the wallet, I would give it to you.

Conditional Tenses - Exercise 11

1. They _____ (get) better mileage if they had bought a smaller car.
2. If you exercised more, you _____ (feel) better.
3. Joe would ask you to dance if he _____ (have) more nerve.
4. If it doesn't rain, we _____ (attend) the company picnic next Sunday.
5. Your car would look cleaner if you _____ (wash) it.
6. We _____ (wave) if we see you tomorrow after the movie.
7. Jerry will know the correct time if he _____ (find) his watch.
8. If the printer had functioned properly, your paper _____ (look) much clearer.
9. The cat would scratch you if you _____ (go) near it.
10. If he had brought his camera, he _____ (take) a picture.

Reference:  TOWSON UNIVERSITY

Gov High School
Rajshahi, Bangladesh

Since 1874