Haji Muhammad Mohsin Government High School
(Since 1874)

Class/Activity – 40, May 13, 2020
Class 9-10

Key:

Exercise 1

1. If I had the proper tools, I would repair this toaster.

2. That cat will scratch you if you pick her up.

3. If Tom has enough time, he will visit your sister tomorrow.

4. You will see flowers within a month if you plant these seeds.

5. If we had gotten rain, the garden would have looked good by now.

6. If you wash the dishes, I will dry them later.

7. If Martin had remembered his passport, he would have been out of customs by now.

8. The garden would have looked better if we had gotten rain earlier this week.

9. I would have bought you a present if you had given me some money.

10. If you had looked harder, you would have seen the tiny bird.

Exercise 2

1. My house would be warmer if the furnace worked.

2. If I had the necessary ingredients, I would make spaghetti.

3. Mary will find the missing key if you give her enough time.

4. If he frames the picture correctly tomorrow, it will look good.

5. If Joe had taken the right train, he would have arrived in Paris by now.

6. Tom would see the sights better if he sat in the front seat.

7. If you add water to the powder, you will create a delicious drink.

8. Gene would have passed the test if he had studied for it.

9. If Mr. Smith had come on time, we would have met him at the station.

10. Bob will reach the city by tomorrow if he drives all day today.

Exercise 3

1. If you polish the silver today, it will look nice for the party tomorrow.

2. If Da Vinci were painting today, he would be famous.

3. The car would have been clean now if you had washed it yesterday.

4. Your vocabulary will improve in the future if you read a lot now.

5. If you had left earlier, you would have arrived on time.

6. We would have plenty of space if we lived in that big house.

7. If you slept more, you would have more energy.

8. If James had eaten all of his food, he would have felt satisfied by now.

9. We would have less strife in the world if people were kinder to each other.

10. If the gardeners plant that tree, it will bloom next spring.

Exercise 4

1. My friend Bob would fly away if he were a bird.

2. If you see a red light, stop your car.

3. If he had shot the bear, he would not have been wounded.

4. Gerald would give me a dollar if he had one.

5. If we were friends, we would talk more often.

6. I will make potato salad tomorrow if I have all of the ingredients.

7. If you had been nicer to the cat, she would have purred.

8. Marjorie would turn on the lights if she came home later.

9. If I were you, I would go home right away.

10. If you give the dog a bone, he usually eats it right away.

Exercise 5

1. If the weather is nice tomorrow, we will go to the beach.

2. John always does his chores if he feels all right.

3. If your dog had barked, the thief would have left.

4. If the tree has a fungus, we will cut it down tomorrow.

5. If Joan had been in her office, she would have seen the e-mail.

6. Paul would have gone to the doctor if he had had a fever.

7. If you lived closer, I would visit more often.

8. John would know what to do if he were home.

9. If the grass seems too high, I usually trim it.

10. The band would have played longer if the crowd had been more enthusiastic.

Exercise 6

1. If I visit you next Saturday, I will bring the letter.

2. If it had rained, we would have gotten wet.

3. Mary would visit more often if she were a better friend.

4. If Tom had read the book, he would have liked the movie.

5. Your arm would become infected if the cat scratched you.

6. If the judge had taken more time, I would have won my case.

7. If you had made more noise, you would have awakened the baby.

8. The eggs would be rubbery if you cooked them too long.

9. If you eat too much food tonight, you will gain weight.

10. If he had more sense, he would stay inside more often.

Exercise 7

1. If a stranger had come to the door, the dog would have barked.

2. If Grace washed her car more often, it would look better.

3. The editor will publish your book if she likes the plot.

4. If the power failed, the television would stop working.

5. If you come to my house next Saturday, I will make lunch for us.

6. No one would read the book if the story was not (were not) interesting.

7. If you had finished school, you would have gotten a good job.

8. If the weather is warm, I usually go to the swimming pool.

9. The plane would have landed on time if the pilot had followed the right course.

10. You would not need your keys if you left your door unlocked.

Exercise 8

1. If you stood on the corner, you would see the parade.

2. If the ducks came here more often, we would feed them.

3. She will wear the green skirt if it fits her.

4. If Joan had been there, she would have told you.

5. You would have enjoyed that book if you had read it.

6. If Madeleine were more courageous, we would feel safer.

7. Sean would have helped if he had been here.

8. The team would have won the game if Jones had played.

9. If the telephone rang, Daisy would answer it immediately.

10*. If the oven had been hotter, the roast would have cooked faster.*

Exercise 9

1. Jim would have scored a goal if he had kicked the ball sooner.

2. If the package arrives soon, someone will open it.

3. If you really cared about me, you would call more often.

4. If I wanted some dessert, I would ask for it.

5. You would know how to surf if you lived in Hawaii.

6. If they have enough time tomorrow, they will visit us.

7. If Joe had made the coffee, no one would have drunk any.

8. The customers would buy more merchandise if it were displayed artistically.

9. If she had joined the army, she would have traveled to many places.

10. You would look nicer if you ironed our shirt.

Exercise 10

1. If it rains this afternoon, I will bring my umbrella to your house.

2. If I knew more about it, I would say something.

3. The plant would thrive if you gave it enough water.

4. People would be more sympathetic if they knew the whole story.

5. If the supermarket had been open, Martha would have bought some groceries.

6. The boat would stop if they lowered the anchor.

7. If the mail carrier had delivered the letter, I would have had information for you.

8. Jack would have made up his mind sooner if he had known about the problem.

9. If the boy had known the truth, he would have told his parents.

10. If I found the wallet, I would give it to you.

Exercise 11

1. They would have gotten better mileage if they had bought a smaller car.

2. If you exercised more, you would feel better.

3. Joe would ask you to dance if he had more nerve.

4. If it doesn't rain, we will attend the company picnic next Sunday.

5. Your car would look cleaner if you washed it.

6. We will wave if we see you tomorrow after the movie.

7. Jerry will know the correct time if he finds his watch.

8. If the printer had functioned properly, your paper would have looked much clearer.

9. The cat would scratch you if you went near it.

10*. If he had brought his camera, he would have taken a picture.*