Change of Narration

Change the form of narration of the following passage.

1. Tishan wandered along the path thinking aloud, "If I continue this diet I should lose twenty pounds by the end of October." Accident! He bumped into another city dweller out for a day's walk in the park. "I'm terribly sorry," he apologized, "I was so caught up in my thoughts, I didn't see you!" he managed to stammer. Smiling, Sheila responded, "It's OK. Nothing's broken... , I wasn't watching my step either."

2. "Don't I know you from somewhere?" inquired Tishan while Sheila exclaimed, "You're Tishan, Jamil's brother, aren't you?!" They both began to laugh as they had met each other the week before at a party that Jamil had given. Still laughing, Tishan suggested, "Why don't we have a cup a coffee and singara?" Sheila said, "I thought you wanted to continue your diet!" They both were still laughing by the time they reached the Swimming Donut cafe.

3. I said to my friend, "I don't have any French story book. Do you have any?" Russel said, "Yes, I have one. I can lend you if you want." "Of course I want, thanks anyway!" said I.

4. "What a tragedy! Thousands of people are being killed by Corona around the globe," was saying Mr Rahman yesterday. Hearing it another man said, "Social distancing is the much wanted precaution right now. Proper cleanliness is the other vital issue. This virus teaches us good lessons. Don't we need to think of it?"

N.B. Answers may vary. But it should maintain the basic rules and the expressions.
